

Padlet

Brief Description:

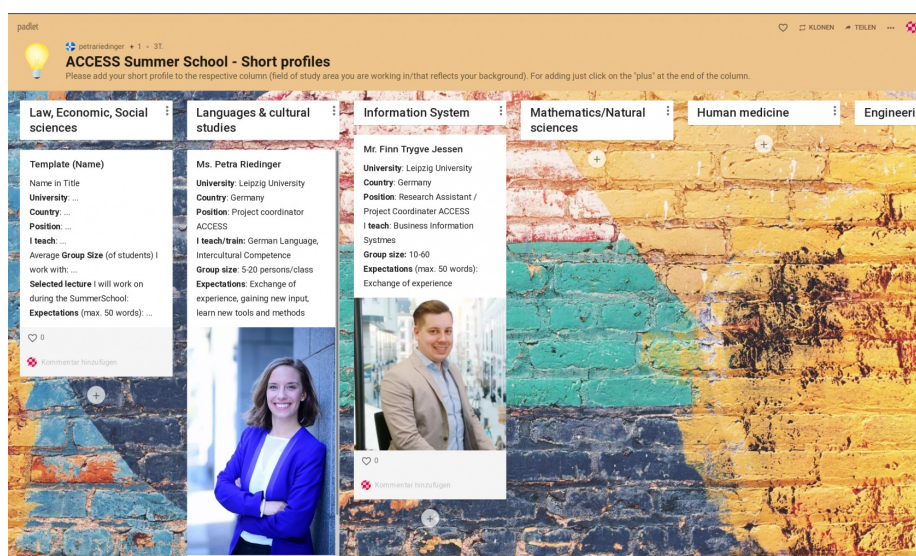

Padlet is an Internet site that allows you to collaborate with other users with text, photos, links and other content. Each collaborative space is called a “wall”. It can also be used as a private bulletin board. Teachers and companies use Padlet to encourage creative multi-media conversations and brainstorming.

Specifications:

Target group	Small- to mid-sized teams
Functionalities	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Almost every file type supportet• Easy invitation of users (no subscription needed)• Easy to use
Formats	iOS, Android, Web-based, Browserextension
Requirements	Internet
License / Cost	Free to use with reduced functionalities, paid subscriptions for full functionality
Link to Tool	Padlet

Example of application:

Create a short profile board for events and add new members.

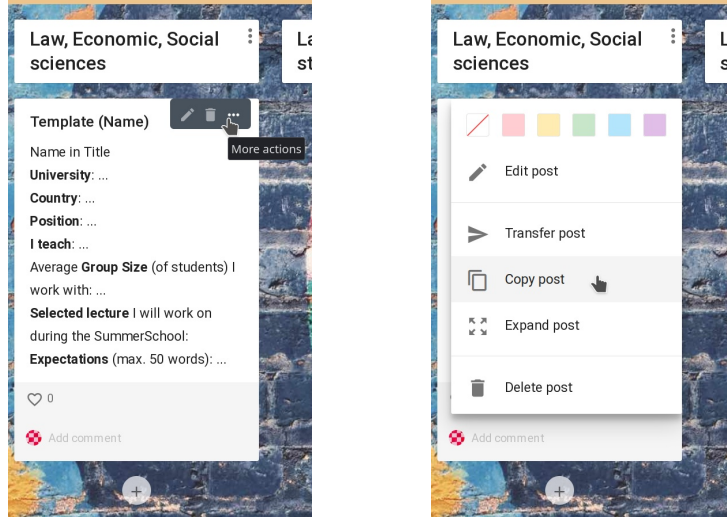

We created a template with some white space for basic informations. By hovering over the element with your cursor you can select more options and copy the post.

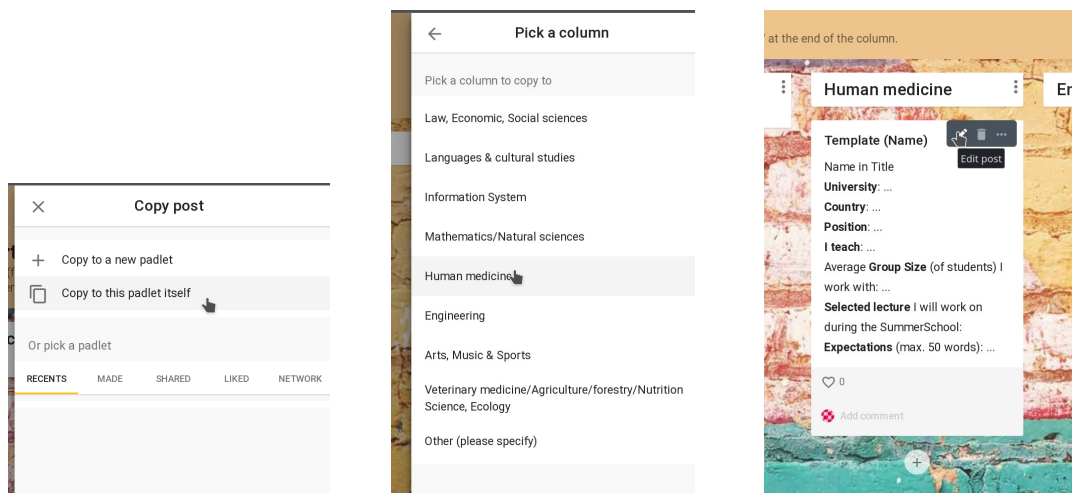

African Centre for Career Enhancement & Skills Support (Access)

Terms of Use

Copy the template to the padlet itself and select a column to create the template within a particular category. After this, you can edit the post by either hovering over and select "Edit post" or via double left click into the element.

Additional format/references:

Padlet YouTube Channel

🔄Revision #10

★Created 9 July 2021 08:56:53 by Finn Trygve Jessen

✎Updated 11 August 2022 12:16:27 by Admin

African Centre for Career Enhancement & Skills Support (Access)

Terms of Use